Old Business:

- The August Tigers game only has 25 seats filled, the bus holds 50 people (non-residents can sign up beginning on Friday, August 8th)\
  - Michigan's Adventure – There were complaints about the Blue Lakes but not having cup holders, that the sound quit on the bus and that the driver wasn't very professional.
  - City Wide Garage Sales – They were listed in the Saginaw News and on Craigslist and multiple Facebook pages. Discussion was had on moving the date due to the Saginaw County Fair being the same weekend, but it was decided not to due to many people already anticipating our community's garage sale weekend.
  - Car Show – organizers weren't able to do the show so it was cancelled.
  - Zilwaukee Homecoming (9/6/14) – Parks & Rec will be providing a slide and bounce house for $300.00. Rene Wuckert is checking on high school students to volunteer to run both. There will be two tents and activities in the street. It will run from 12pm – 11pm with food from 1-6pm and live music from 3-5pm and 7-11pm.
  - Riverfront project – it is moving forward. Consumers is the only hold-up now due to some leasing issues. They want to start charging Zilwaukee $1,800/ month for the park.
