Administrator Comments

The administrator gave the council an update as to the FEMA audit. A Flood Insurance Assessment was given to each councilman and explained by the administrator.

The council was made aware of the significantly low number of residents carrying flood insurance and the plan that the city is proposing to better educate the community to the advantages of this coverage.

The flood plain ordinance is in need of amending. Corrections and the amendment process will proceed after approval of EGLE.

The city assessor is stepping down and plans are in place to find a replacement.

The dates to put out brush for the fall pick up are October 9th through the 18th. Also a plan is being developed for replacing/repairing sidewalks and an update was given on the Memorial Park Courts Project.
